THE YELLOW DEATH.

Continued Ravages—Dying Doctors—Faint Hopes of a Change—The Death Roll

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—Dr. Isadore Leaman, Benj. A. Ray, a son of Hon. Jno. Ray, and R. D. Mitchell, late a Captain in the 2d New Jersey Cavalry, are among the deaths to-day. The Howard Association reports two hundred and seventy-seven new cases.

Dr. O. C. Thompson, of Osyka, Miss., reports that he had several cases of yellow fever there, but of a mild type. Since Sunday there are several new cases, among them Dr. Jones and his son, Mrs. Ellis and Dr. Thompson's wife.

GRENADA, Sept. 12.—Since yesterday four deaths and five new cases are reported.

NEW ORLEANS, September 12.—The Young Men's Christian Association reported ninety-four new cases yesterday. Among the deaths was Geo. McCloskey.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12.—H. W. Bleitz, of Memphis, died of yellow fever last evening.

It is stated that a very malignant fever has broken out at New Richmond, Ohio, a small place, twenty miles from Cincinnati, up the river. Of six or seven persons attacked up to this time, five have died.

The wife of the Rev. Dr. Lewis and a servant girl of their next door neighbor died Tuesday, and shortly after the wife and sister of Mike McGlane, where the servant died, were attacked and died.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—Two hundred and twelve new cases, and fifty-seven deaths are reported for to-day.

CANTON, MISS., Sept. 12.—No abatement of the scourge: New cases, 20; deaths, 2.

VICKSBURG, Sept. 11, via NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—The weather is cloudy and very cool. Among the deaths today are: D. A. Cully, merchant; Dr. Potts and Dr. Bichfeldt, of Chattanooga, a volunteer aid. The two Doctors, Bichfeldt and Norris, with ten nurses, who came from Chattanooga, are both dead, and nine of the nurses are sick. It is best for physicians and nurses that have not had the fever to keep away from Vicksburg. Deaths yesterday, 42; to-day, 31. Number of new cases unknown, but it is generally thought by the druggists that the fever is decreasing in new cases, for want of material. The fever is spreading throughout Warren county. The Howard Association estimates 3,000 cases and 500 deaths since the fever first appeared.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Relief Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to-day received $1,417, 47, making the total subscriptions $87,582,03. Mayor Ely received subscriptions to the amount of $986,81.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 12—The thermometer last night marked 60½ degrees, but a stiff breeze dissipated all hopes of frost. From 6 p. m. yesterday up to noon to-day there were sixty-two deaths, among whom are several of the most prominent citizens, including Dr. B. W. Avent, Judge Robert Hutchinson, Capt. A. T. Lacey, Prof. E. S. Francis, and Capt. Wm. Elliott. Sister Vincenta is also dead. Rev. S. Landrum, Pastor of the Central Baptist Church was taken sick while watching by the bedside of his daying son. Herbert S. Landrum, City Editor of the Avalanche has died. Nurses from Southesn cities continue to arrive and are much needed. Dr. J. W. Woodard, a resident physician, died with the fever. Casey Young, M. C., is sick, but not with the fever. Hopes are entertained that, at least there will be a falling off in the number of new cases. Mayor Flipper is convalescing.

A State at Prayer.

CINCIEATTI, OHIO Sept. 8.—Gov. Bishop has issued the following, dated Columbus, Sept. 7:

Whereas a large portion of our country is afflicted with a terrible plague, which is sweeping away hundreds of our fellow-citizens in the South, and rendering desolate many households; and whereas, human science and human effort have proved unavailing in stopping the progress of the devasting scourge, and the only hope in the hour of extremity is in the intervention of Almighty God, who has promised to answer prayers addressed to Him in the hour of need.

Now, therefore, I, Richard M. Bishop, Governor of the State of Ohio, recommend that on Friday, the 13th day of September, all Christian people in the State of Ohio assemble in their respective houses of worship, and offer up their united prayers to God to check the dreadful plague which is afflicting the Southern States, and that He in His infinite goodness will restore health, peace, and prosperity to the houses and homes which have been called upon to mourn the loss of friends and relatives.

RICHARD M. BISHOP,
Governor of the State of Ohio.

Washington Notes.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue telegraphed to the United States Marshal for Georgia to-day, that if he needed assistance to make arrests of the three Ennis, illicit distillers, of Baldwin county, he would authorize the Collector to employ a strong force to aid them. The Marshal replied that if necessary he would accept the offer.

Subscriptions to the yellow fever fund continue to increase. Fifteen thousand dollars have thus far been subscribed here.

The Metropolitan Hotel, which has been closed for three months, was reopened to-day under the proprietorship of J. F. Coke.

Massachusetts Greenbackers.

By Telegraph to the News.

CONCORD, Sept. 12.—Hosea Parker was President of the Democratic State Convention. Among the resolutions is the declaration that greenbacks should be made full legal tender for all debts public and private, and the words gold or silver or coin should not remain in the contract to pay those bonds.

Rumored Massacre Discredited

By Telegraph to the News.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Nothing is known respecting the alleged massacre of General Miles' excursion party. The story is discredited at Sheridan's headquarters.

The Colliery Disaster.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The full extent of the terrible disaster in the coal mine at Abercarne, is now known. At half past two o'clock this morning the flooding of the pit commenced. At that hour the fire was within a short distance of the bottom of the shaft and all hope of further rescues had to be abandoned. When the decision was announced to the relatives of the 251 men still in the pit, a scene ensued, terrible beyond description. Thirteen additional bodies were recovered before the flooding began.

Massachusetts Politics.

By Telegraph to the News.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee of Massachusetts yesterday, it was voted that under the call for the State Convention, no person known to be in favor of nominating, through the Democratic Convention, as a candidate for Governor or for any State office, a person who is not a recognized member of the Democratic party, should be entitled to sit or vote in the Democratic State Convention.

Republican caucusses were held in this city and the surrounding cities and towns last evening, for the choice of delegates to the State and other Conventions. The State delegates generally favored the nomination of Talbot for Governor.

The Warrenton Murderer Found Guilty.

Special to the News.

WARRENTON, N. C., Sept. 12.

The case of Wm. Rainy, for the murder of Jim Taylor, both colored, was called Wednesday. They finished examining witnesses about 6 p. m. The argument commenced at 7:30, and closed about 12. The jury were hung until this morning and then rendered a verdict of guilty about 10. Sentence has not been pronounced as yet.

Trade Mass Meeting.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—At a meeting of United States Board of Trade held yesterday, it was resolved to hold the next meeting in New York, on Wednesday Nov. 6th, when presidents and delegates from all the Chambers of Commerce, Board of Trade, maritime, produce, and commercial exchanges in the United States will be invited to attend.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Exchange of Standard Silver Dollars for Greenbacks--Effect of the Recent Order of Secretary Sherman.

Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The recent order of the Secretary of the Treasury to the United States Treasurer, directing him to exchage standard silver dollars for greenbacks, on and after September 16, is regarded at the Treasury Department as a practical resumption of specie payments, more sweeping in its effect than the resumption act taking effect next January. The last named law provides for resumption in sums of fifty dollars and its multiple, at sub-treasuries, whereas the letter of the Secretary of the Treasury of last Saturday makes no limit as to amount, and prescribes no particular place, except the several sub-treasuries, where exchange of silver for greenbacks is to be made.

It is thought that the effect of the new order will be to wholly obliterate the small remaining premium on gold, thus making paper silver, and gold dollars of equal value as circulating mediums. It is not thought that the order will place more of the silver dollars in circulation. Importers having customs dues to pay will take their greenbacks to obtain silver for them at one window and then exchange silver dollars for silver certificates at another window. This practically makes greenbacks equal with gold and silver for payment of customs. It is not thought any amount of silver worthy of consideration will be taken from the treasury because, for purposes of commerce, the greenback is preferable, and the new ones and twos may be had at the treasury in any amount.

The order issued several weeks ago, known as the one thousand dollar order, which provides for sending silver dollars in sums of from one to ten thousand dollars, has had the effect to take out of the treasury about two million dollars, making in all something more than three millions of dollars now in practical circulation. There are, therefore, ten millions of dollars in the treasury, which is considered enough for use and payment of customs in New York city. From three to five hundred thousand dollars are paid in for customs daily.

The sub-treasury at San Francisco, since the passage of the silver bill, has issued five and a half millions dollars in silver certificates in payment for silver builion, and four and a half millions are now in New York city, having been sent on mostly by mail, which is a fact worthy of consideration. There are now in the vaults of the treasury seventy-seven million dollars in greenbacks. The greenbacks received at the treasury under Saturday's order in exchange for silver will be paid out again in actual course of business.

Hon. C. H. Brogden.

Goldsboro Messenger.

Gov. Brogden addressed a large gathering at Wilson on Tuesday. We did not hear him, but learn that he was attentively listened to by all present. After defending his own record, he went for O'Hara with gloves off, charging him with outrageous malfeasance in office and declared him to be devoid of both character and principle. The Governor left the impression that he will probably be a candidate, and if so, he counts hopefully on his election. He referred with pride to his past congressional course and intimated that if it was his privilege to serve the people another term he would be the representative of the whole people and stand by his section.

What Blaine Says About Butler.

From the Chicago Times.

"What is your opinion of Butler?"

"You won't dare print it."

"Better try and see."

"Well, I'll tell you, and you may do as you please about making it public. My own personal opinion of Butler, founded upon some years of observation, is that he's a lamentably successful cross between the fox and the hog."

LENOIR NEWS.

The Power of the Farmer--Maj. Barrett's Claims for the Position of Engrossing Clerk.

Correspondence of the News.

The farmer must be recognized in choosing persons to hold offices of trust. Capital, judiciously managed, is the propelling force of the machinery that moves on the car of civilization; but when arrayed against labor it is dangerous to republican institutions, and has a tendency to engender strife and enmity among the various classes of society.

The friends of W. S. Barrett, of Lenoir county, will urge his name before the next House for engrossing Clerk, a position which he has held for four years, giving entire satisfaction. Major Barrett is a faithful servant of Democracy, having in every campaign since the war taken an active part, though disabled as he is for life by a wound received in those "dark days that tried men's souls." Major Barrett entered the Confederate army at the beginning and fought bravely till its colors were laid "sweet and low," then returned home to follow his chosen vocation, that of the farmer, and, having lost all his means, was compelled "to make his bread by the sweat of his brow."

To the old members re-elected to the Legislature it is only enough for them to know that he is a candidate. To those newly elected, his friends can only refer them to the resolution of the last House commendatory of his "well done" and faithful service.

Unfortunately the East is without its quota of Democratic representatives, owing to matters over which it has no control, therefore the election of Major Barett for Engrossing Clerk will keep the gallant representatives of the West "comme il faut" as to the interests of the counties in his section now represented by Radicals. "Honor to whom honor is due," is all his friends desire.

CITIZEN.

WILSON.

Court Week--Candidates for Congress--Business, etc.

Correspondence of the News.

WILSON, Sept. 11.

On Monday court opened, Judge A. A. McKoy presiding. Swift Galloway, Esq., is the efficient Solicitor. This is the first trip of either of these gentlemen in this circuit and by their affable ways they are winning many friends.

The charge of the Judge was clear, plain and concise. There are three criminal cases on the docket, besides many minor offences. One man has four different indictments against him. He never gets convicted, though for the last several courts he has bad cases. A case of burglary, is now in process of trial, and it is thought we may have the defendant hung.

Politics in the Second District are getting rather hot.

J. E. O'Hara, colored, the Republican regular nominee for Congress, stands a very poor chance of representing this district in the next Congress. On Tuesday Ex. Gov. Curtis H. Brogden addressed his fellow citizens on the important issues of the day. I did not hear his speech and cannot comment. He asked the "cullerd brethren" which they had rather have, a silver quarter or a torn paper one? They all said silver. He is thought to be the "dark horse" in the race. Capt. W. H. Kitchen spoke on Tuesday evening. Isaac H. Smith, a gentleman of Egyptian darkness, next occupied about one hour in his address. It was made up chiefly of abuse of O'Hara, the regular nominee. Smith says: I shall not tell you who to vote for; but I do tell you not to vote for O'Hara. He carries around several charges against O'Hara, which he shows.

Prof. Adams has opened a school here with about 25 pupils.

Prof, Brewer opened Monday. I have not been able to ascertain the number present. He thinks his prospects are flattering. Prof. Hassell opens the first Monday in October. Wilson is truly blessed with good schools.

Business, heretofore dull, is now somewhat more brisk. Four large commodious stores are just completed and are to be opened in a short while. We have had very wet, rainy weather lately.

FIX.

Chinese Leprosy-Sights, Scenes and Symptoms Belonging to the Terrible Disease.

From the San Francisco Chronicle.

In that slum-hole of the Chinese quarter—if any special designation of filthiness be applicable to the gigantic nuisance in the aggregate—known as Bull Run alley, is located the leper hospital, an institution, the existence of which is little known to the outside world. The alley in question has a depth of about one hundred yards. It is lined on either side with dirt-begrimed rookeries of antique architecture, representing early San Francisco in that advanced stage of putrid decay which might correspond with the rottenness of the Egyptian catacombs. In all the utter filthiness of Chinatown, this stygian retreat excels in its multiplicity of sickening odors, each in itself too rank and ponderous to combine, except through some powerful amalgamating process. In a row of low wooden buildings at the northern extremity of the alley is situated the supreme horror of the place, the leper hospital. That such a dangerous abomination should be permitted to exist in the very heart of a populous city in America is one of the mysteries of this stupendous exhalation, San Francisco. In exploring this retreat, a Chronicle reporter discovered in different apartments on the lower floor no less than eighteen wretched victims of leprosy, in the various stages of horrible distortion peculiar to the loathsome disease prescribed in Holy Writ as the prime curse of humanity. The subjects were stretched on rude forms, covered with mats, and writhing and groaning with pain. A portion of the cases examined, presented the peculiar symptoms of the scaly leprosy, the flesh of the body and limbs being covered with white scales, while at the extremities the flesh was in a state of rottenness, the fingers seeming liable to drop off. Other cases were of the type known as elephantiasis, the effects of which are even more horribly repulsive than those previously described. In this form of the disease the limbs swell to an enormous size, and the flesh of the face is distorted in great protuberances out of all resemblance to the human countenance. The rooms of this horrible retreat were dark and black with the smoke from a number of furnaces, at which cooking was going on after the filthy style in vogue with the Chinese. This place is only resorted to by the lepers after the disease is so far advanced as to prevent them from longer obtaining a livelihood at cigar-making and other industries; and the collection of utterly helpless lepers here described represents only a fraction of the number that might be discovered by a thorough search of the Chinese quarter. The remainder of Bull Run alley, contiguous to the leper hospital, is inhabited by Chinese vegetable pedlers and others engaged in the lower pursuits.

The Misery at Memphis.

From the Memphis Avalanche.

AVALANCHE OFFICE, Midnight.

We are doomed.

It is hard, as we write in this dark, dismal night of death, not to realize the full meaning of that brief sentence. It is hard for any man of the few left in this city of sorrows not to take the sentence to himself with a painfully personal application as the sentence of death. Scarcely any are left but those who are crowding down personal care in the noble purpose of others' good. To them death, if it comes, will have the sweetening consolation that it is brought by as noble a service as the God in heaven, as the man on earth, ever looked upon. To die for man is to imitate the grandest event in the history of our globe; it is to imitate the death of the Savior of the world. The rain falls slowly, the storm of the afternoon having sunk into a dismal, solemnly sad drizzle, as though the heavens themselves were touched to tears at the sight of so much of human misery. The rattle of an occasional vehicle along the silent street tells that the member of some benevolent society is hastening to minister to the sick or dying. That is all. Else is silence, deathly and awful, with naught but the rattle of the water from the roof into the tin gutter, and that has the ominous gurgle of a death-rattle in the human throat. Seventy dead and at least one hundred and twenty-five new cases. God help us! If hope were not worn to a skeleton; if she had not taken herself to prayer, we might find a spark to kindle a weak glow of light in this impenetrable darkness, and expect that the heavy shower of to-day would wash from air, from gutter and from bayou a part of the foul pestilential air which is brooding death. The horrors of the hour cannot be told, even if the heart did not sicken at the task. They are horors such as make a hell on earth; such as make life almost a burden. Elsewhere it will be seen that a noble band of physicians have come to our aid. We need them all, and more; and when we think into what a tornado of death they throw their frail bodies we connot but be amazed that strangers should dare so much for strangers. Their reward is found in a higher sphere than that in which our full hearts beat in gratitude. The Howards need men to supply the places of the sick. Their inability to visit all the stricken yesterday caused much distress, if not deaths. The ranks of the clergy, as brave a company of Christian soldiers as ever faced martyrdom without a fear, has been invaded. But why write more? Why try to add words when the dark list below speaks so plainly of our unprecedented calamity? Where it will end, God only knows.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Result of the Maine Election--Its Effect and Suggestiveness--Disruption of the Republican Party.

Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The politicians of both parties concur that the result of the Maine election will have an important influence on the fall election yet to come. Whatever lingering hopes the Republicans may have had of obtaining control of the next House are now effectually dissipated, and the Democrats are confidently claiming that the majority of their party will not be less than forty, which is double the present majority.

The spectacle of a Maine Democrat in the House of Representatives will certainly be quite novel, and the signs of the times indicate that Democrats will be returned from other quarters where they have been quite as scarce as in Maine. It is conclusively demonstrated now, contrary to what has been held by some politicians who pass for wiseacres, that the greenback and labor element is the source of danger to the Republican and of aid to the Democratic party. A leading Massachusetts Republican, who has been Governor of the State and who has served in both branches of Congress, says the result in Maine will imperil very much Republican prospects in Massachusetts, and that he will be agreeably disappointed if the Democrats do not gain on the congressional delegation from Massachusetts.

THE SWEEP OF A CYCLONE.

Wayne County Visited--Loss of Life--Destruction of Property.

Goldsboro Messenger Extra.

A most destructive cyclone passed near this town this morning shortly before 7 o'clock, and destroyed everything before it. We first hear of it below the Finlayson farm, about 5 1-2 miles east of Goldsboro. Its path seems to have been about 50 yards wide. On the Finlayson place it demolished every house, scattering their timber for a quarter mile or more, and one negro woman was painfully hurt.

It was signalled by a sound resembling that of roaring thunder, and was distinctly heard for miles, while the citizens living near its path were completely panic-stricken, not knowing what to make of it; it all lasted but a few minutes. We are told that it approached with considerable speed, in a funnel-like shape, and resembling a solid but furious whirl of a dark cloud, now spreading and then again compressed into a solid mass. Wherever it struck it lev l d everything. Trees were twisted in the twinkle of an eye and cut down with a terrible crash, houses were scattered and the smaller ones carried before the dark column until smashed into debris, fences wrecked and crops destroyed, but this is not all. It is also our painful duty to chronicle the loss of life and the maiming of others.

On the Gregory and Galloway place, about a quarter of a mile northwest of the Finlayson farm, it struck with most terrific force. The farm is rented by Crawford Feutrel and Calvin Perry, who, with their family, occupied a comfortable frame house on the place. Mr. Perry heard the maddened roar, and on opening the door, saw it approaching directly towards his house. It was then a quarter mile off, and he says the houses on the Finlayson place seemed to be rolling before the destructive cloud. He called to his family, hastily giving the alarm, but ere they could get out of the house the cyclone struck the building, and for several minutes they were in the midst of death. The house was completely demolished and the timbers scattered for some two hundred yards; nothing remains of the building but the sills and floor and these are twisted. When Mr. Perry became conscious he found himself on the ground in the yard, with one of his children under him. Both he and the child received painful bruises. His wife was also slightly injured, and another child received a serious cut on the head and a broken arm. Old man Feutrel was yet in bed when the house was struck. He escaped with a broken leg. The bedstead was twisted and the feathers and bed clothing scattered over the neighborhood. Amidst the debris and under the ruins of the chimney lay the dead body of Tom, a negro man, who sat at one of the windows when the house was struck. His brains were mashed in, and his death must have been instantaneous.

The destruction of the place is complete. The barn and outhouses shared the fate of the dwelling, and the timbers were found strewn in all directions; even the heavy blocks on which they had rested were carried some distance in the path of the whirlwind. A large iron pot that had stood in the house was found at a distance of about two hundred yards, and the contents of a barrel of mullets were scattered promiscuously. A horse and mule escaped slightly hurt, but dogs, cats, rats and chickens were killed outright. Nearly a hundred chickens of all sizes were strewn round for hundreds of yards, and as free of feathers as if picked ready for the stew pot. Fences were demolished, and cotton stalks stripped naked. Out of about thirty head of hogs only three could be found. Mr. Perry says they were on the lot when the storm came, and he thinks they were carried off. All the wearing apparel of the family is either missing or torn into rags, and the scanty furniture broken into fragments. The loss falls heavy upon the victims.

There are doubtless other casualties, but these are all we have heard of up to the time of this writing. Drs. J. F. Miller and W. H. H. Cobb repaired speedily to the scene of the calamity and did all in their power to alleviate the sufferings of the victims. Our coroner, Dr. Kirby, has gone to view the body of the dead negro.

The cyclone moved rapidly westward, and crossed the W. & W. Railroad, within a mile of Goldsboro, and without having lost its destructiveness Several of our citizens saw the dark cloud as it passed near the town. In its course it leveled everything; its traces are visible on all sides of the path. We expect to hear of other destruction, though as it passed near here the cloud seemed to be gradually spreading out, and may have lost its power to destroy.

The Next State Fair.

Donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society, for the premium list of the 18th annual State fair, at Raleigh, N. C., October 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, next.

(Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.)

Two dozen Kimball's long-handle shovels, with wrought iron straps, $30.00; one half-dozen Kimball's D. H. shovels, B pt. No. 2, $7.50; one half-dozen D. H. shovels, square, No. 2, $7.50; one-twelfth dozen Kimball's Planter's Hoes, each from No. 3 to No. 4, $1.20; one-twelfth dozen Kimball's Scwiler pat. Hoes, each from No. 3 to No. 4, $1.50; given by Samuel G. B. Cook, of the Kimball Shovel Co., Baltimore, Md., through Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co., the esteemed hardware merchants of this city. This valuable contribution furnishes nearly fifty dollars for the supplementary list of articles that any farmer can find ready use for. Mr. Cook desires those to whom they are awarded to communicate with him, that he may receive their testimony as to the value of the hoes.

One box cigars, $6.00, "American Cousin" brand; given by Jones & O'Neil, a new firm, just established, of enterprising young men in our city. They manufacture several fine brands, and will make a display at the Fair.

Eight annual subscriptions to the Hillsboro Recorder, $12.00; given by Col. John D. Cameron, Editor, Hillsboro, N. C. We are especially grateful for this practical aid from that most accomplished gentleman and able editor, whose graceful pen is known wherever there are North Carolinians. The Committee is glad to acknowledge the sympathy and aid of the press, foremost in building up every work that tends to the welfare of the State.

Positively the Best

NOTES.

Last year there was not a single Democrat in the Vermont Senate. This year there will be just one—a gain of one hundred per cent., or thereabouts.

Philadelphia has a rival of Alexander H. Stephens in a Mrs. Lucretia Mott, who is eighty-five years of age and weighs eighty-five pounds.

Gen. Jubal Early says he has never yet submitted to an interview and never will, as long as he retains his senses and self-respect.

As an elegant, refined and matronly woman, Mrs. Hayes is far superior to Mr. Hayes.—Baltimore Gazette.

The Gazette might have gone further. She is a better man than he is.

That proud leviathan of the deep—the Great Eastern—has at last found her legitimate sphere. She is to be used as a cattle transport, and will ply between Texas and London. She will will carry 2,200 head of cattle and 2,600 head of sheep.

It has been suggested, in view of the difficulty of resurrecting the Old Line Whig, that perhaps Mr. Hayes might make a dicker with the communists. He could inaugurate the experiment by turning Schurz out and putting in his place that other great tramp, Kearney.

Every member of the Cabinet but one has taken to the stump to endeavor to stay the tide of Republican disaster, and that one is Carl Schurz. Is he so much the slave of a habit or of his greed for money that he won't even defend himself at less than $250 a night?

A negro was recently lynched in Erie county, Ohio, and the bar association of that county is out in a resolution denouncing it as a "burning disgrace, not to be submitteed to by a free people." A good deal can be pardoned to the excesses of indignation but nobody but an Irishman like Sir Boyle Roche would ever speak of a hanging as "a burning disgrace" or "a drowning shame."

An exchange tells us that "Mrs. Sarah Thompson, of Clover Grove, N. C., has borne her husband—a delicate man of 120 pounds weight—twenty consecutive children in twenty consecutive years." The State of North Carolina ought to award Mrs. Thompson a pension, and let her stop and rest awhile now.—[Louisville Journal.

Business Changes.

The latest news in mercantile circles here is that of the change in firms whereby Messrs. C. G. Latta, and W. A. Myatt join their forces in the fall business battle. The new firm of Latta & Myatt will occupy the store lately held by Barbee & Latta. In this fine establishment they will keep a full stock of all farm supplies, groceries of every description, together with cotton ties and bagging of best brands. These, as well as all other needed supplies, will be sold in any quantity at bottom prices. *

The Cloven Foot.

There is a paper published in the city of Washington called the "People's Advocate", which is edited by colored men and is the National organ of the colored race. We take the following article from the last number of the paper and invite to it the attention of the people of North Carolina, and of this District, particularly:

"The action of the Virginia Educational and Historical Association, in rejecting a resolution requesting the colored people to have nothing to do with the National party, meets with our hearty approval. We have been pleased to see the progress being made in the South by this new party.

In districts where the colored man has not exclusive control, this National party is his only hope. The Republican party, with the exception of two or three districts, is dead in the South.

The leaders in this new movement will be those liberal men who are disgusted with Bourbonism.

This split in the Democratic party will give the negro the balance of power, (a consummation to be devoutly wished), and then he will have it in his power to demand whatever he desires. Not until he is placed in this position, will he be recognized as a power in the political affairs of this country."

The suggestions embodied in this article corroborate and confirm what we have uniformly stated as to the tactics of the moribund Radical party in the South. Its only chance of galvanic resuscitation is by rallying the negro to the support of the "independent" National movement. Such a policy presents its sole hope of regaining the power it has lost by its crimes and usurpations. And in this connection, it is a significant fact that the "National" paper in this city has hoisted the name of Josiah Turner to its mast-head for Congress, and that the recent Radical Executive Committee, in endorsing that individual, speak of him as obnoxious to the "Bourbon"—that is the "Democratic"—element. The identity of language employed by the Committee aforesaid and the negro organ at Washington is not the result of accident, but is simply the natural sequence of a concocted policy and a deeply-laid scheme of Radical intrigue. In the light of the utterances of the Peoples' Advocate, the action of the Republican Committee in adopting Turner as the Radical standard-bearer is easily explicable.

It is a remarkable circumstance that while the Republican party at the North, controlled as it is by the monopolists and money-kings, the rings and corporations, denounces the National movement because it proposes to elevate the condition of the laboring white masses, the same party in the South seeks to use it for the purpose of dividing the Democratic party, and to employ it to re-acquire, if possible, through the consolidation of the black masses with a few deluded or interested white men, a hold upon office and power.

We ask the Democratic voters—the white men worthy of the name or association—to heed and mark well the boastful and insolent declaration of the negro organ at Washington, that a "split in the Democratic party will give the negro the balance of power, and then he will have it in his power to DEMAND whatever he desires!"

"The Same Old Party."

Now that Josiah Turner has been nominated as the Radical candidate for Congress by the little squad of proxies and substitutes which met in this city on Tuesday, he will have to modify that "same old speech" somewhat. However, he has done that, since he has been coquetting for this endorsement, and has let himself down by claiming that the Radical party was "purified." Whatever dissatisfaction may exist among certain Republicans as to the nomination of Turner, or however they may feel that it was made in an unauthorized or insufficient manner, it is still an established fact that he has received in one sense an official recognition at the hands of the Radical party. Taking up, ourselves, the lost threads of "that same old speech," we beg leave to remind the Democratic voters of this district that the party which has thus endorsed Josiah Turner is the "same old party" they have fought in former years as the great enemy of the people, and which was the source and origin of all those evils, from most of which, by the power of their indignant manhood, they have happily escaped.

It is the same party of proscription, of hate and of corruption.

It is the same party which bred a horde of venal judges, of ignorant and corrupt legislators and of carpet-bag adventurers.

It is the same party which foisted upon the people, at the point of the bayonet, the infamous Canby Constitution.

It is the same party which sent Kirk and his minions raiding among the people and outraging their liberties.

It is the same party which sought to fasten an immense debt upon our people and taxed them beyond the power of endurance.

It is the same party of rings and robberies and briberies.

It is the same party which made Holden Governor, Tourgee and Watts Judges, that sent Abbott to the United States Senate and Deweese to Congress, and that has elected John H. Collins, the negro Solicitor of this Judicial District.

It is the same party which, through its representatives in Congress, passed the Resumption Act, contracted the currency, subsidized corporations, enriched monopolies and plethorized the rich boadholders at the expense of the toiling masses. And,

It is the same party which elected Grant to the Presidency in 1868 and 1872, and proposes to elect him again, if possible, in 1880, that we may have a "strong government,"—in other words, a military despotism!

Maine.

The election in Maine, on Monday, dated the overthrow of Republican ascendancy in that famous stronghold of Radicalism. Gov. Connor is undoubtedly defeated by the people,—the first Republican candidate who has suffered discomfiture in that State for a quarter of a century. The lower House of the Legislature will contain a majority of Democrats and Nationals, and will inevitably defeat Conner's election by the Senate, as, controlled by the opposition, it will only return the Democratic and National candidates as the men between whom the Senate must choose. The defeat of Hale and Powers for Congress is assured, and the councils of the nation will thus be rid of two of the most persistent Radical agitators. Powers is the same man whom Mr. Davis, of this District, so mercilessly excoriated at the last session of Congress, for his malignant misrepresentation of the South.

Says the Philadelphia Times: "The lesson of Maine is a brief story to record. It is a Republican disaster that is revolutionary in its results. It does not entirely, perhaps recall the Democrats to power in that hitherto unfaltering Republican State, but it places her authority in the custody of a Democratic receiver, to be held until the damaged assets of the Republican bankrupt can be properly disposed of. It is a defeat of Republicanism not because the people of Maine loved the Republican Cæsar less, but because they loved Rome more, and it is an admonition that there must be a nobler rule in State and nation. It is a crushing blow to Blaine, the ablest of all the Republican leaders of the country, for it makes him the undertaker of all troops of Republican leaders in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. It is the death-knell of Republicanism in Ohio and Indiana for 1878, and it invites the name of Andrew H. Dill in the next Gubernatorial commission of Pennsylvania so plainly that no one can blunder in reading it."

It has been reserved for the New York Times,—a paper which, though uncompromising in its political tone, we had supposed above such meanness,—to twit the Democrats of the South with the allegation that, "in the presence of calamities which have called into exercise the sympathies of all other parts of the country, their partisan warfare" is carried on with as much bitterness as ever; "that the fever has not frightened the Democratic politicians, or checkened their spirit or restrained their tongues,—that they are as busy as ever, stimulating and organizing their adherents with an energy which suggests that in their minds the sole duty of the Southern citizen, even now, is to subjugate Republicans, etc."

The scourged people of the South have been afflicted with two evils,—a fearful pestilence, (the visitation of that Providence to whose chastening we must bow in reverential submission), every exhibition of sympathy in which we gratefully appreciate, and a moral and political plague, the result of Radical and carpet-bag rule, which we owe it to every instinct of interest, manhood and duty to suppress and "subjugate." If we were disposed to retort upon the Times in the spirit of its unkind utterances, we might retaliate by expressing surprise that the presence of the terrible fever-scourge has not softened the hearts of those who have been instrumental in inflicting upon the South frightful social and political evils and caused them to "lay to" the hand of party bitterness. We say to the Times, with all emphasis and a due sense of their horrible present affliction, that the people of the stricken Southern States might as wisely abate all precautions to keep off the pestilence as to permit their efforts to save themselves from a repetition of the sorely experienced calamities of Radical misrule and oppression.

Wise Words.

General Jos. E. Johnston's letter, accepting the Congressional nomination at the hands of the Democracy of the Third District of Virginia, is universally applauded. We reproduce the following utterances of a sage and a patriot, for the special benefit of those who may be disposed to let personal considerations impair their fidelity to party:

"I hold that far the first of them [questions now interesting the public] in importance is that of the maintenance of the Democratic party of the United States in its integrity. For we of the South owe to that party our release from the condition of conquered provinces and the protection of the Constitution we now enjoy. And if we maintain it undivided it will probably acquire the control of both the legislative and executive branches of the government, and introduce honesty, economy and strict construction of the Constitution into the government, and restore prosperity to the country."

"If we maintain it undivided." This, says the Norfolk Landmark, is the condition. The twigs bound into a fagot will defy all who try to break it; but divided, their strength is gone. And the ends in view are of such paramount importance that to desert the party now would be an act of treason against the cause of good government and the interests of the people.

Perhaps in no State of the Union are such exhaustive canvasses made as by candidates for office in North Carolina, which is the true reason why our people, as a general rule, are so thoroughly posted on political matters. We were informed, last winter, by a Pennsylvania Congressman, who represents a District composed of several large counties, that he did not make a speech during the campaign preceding his election, and, indeed, that he did not go outside of the county in which he resided. Prof. Seelye, of Marsachusetts, who was nominated for Congress in 1874, boasted that he was elected at the expense of a single postage stamp. We confess to a preference for our own time honored custom, under which aspirants for public position confront the people and discuss political issues. It has the double and desirable effect of making the masses acquainted with their representatives and of enabling the candidate to become informed as to the wishes of the people.

The endorsement of Josiah Turner by the bossing proxies, who undertook to act for the Radical party in the late so called meeting of the District Committee, has caused, it is said, no little disgust and dissatisfaction in the party. Several prominent leaders and many lesser lights refuse to give in their adhesion to its action, and announce their intention to bring out a "first-tried" candidate. We shall see. Meanwhile, the Democrats of this District, with a few inconsequential exceptions, are a unit in their resolve to send Joseph J. Davis back to Congress.

Kearney complimented one of his interrupters the other day as "a lop-eared pelican of the wilderness." He also characterized some other gentleman as "a mangy, crawling, leprous mackerel," "a brass-mounted galoot" and "a slimy vampire." This beats Jo. Turner's designations of "kildee Lassiter," "greasy Sam Watts," "blear-eyed Tourgee," "blow-your-horn Billy" and "rotating Richard."

VEGETINE.

Cured Her.

BELLEVUE, KY.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—
Dear Sir,—I must state that your Vegetine deserves to be called a valuable blood purifier, renovator and invigorator of the whole system. My wife suffered for a length of time with a Scrofula Sore on the leg. She took several bottles of Vegetine. The results were surprising: it cured her, while all the former remedies failed to give satisfaction.

Respectfully,
T. F. TRICK.

PURIFIES THE BLOOD.

BOSTON, MASS., Jan. 13, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir,—I have been using Vegetine for some time with the greatest satisfaction, and can highly recommend it as a great cleanser and purifier of the blood.
J. L. HANAFORD,
Pastor of Egleston-square M. E. Church.

Nervousness, and all derangements of the nervous system, are usually connected with a diseased condition of the blood. Debility is a frequent accompaniment. The first thing to be done is to improve the condition of the blood. This is accomplished by taking Vegetine. It is a nerve medicine, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.

CINCINNATI, April 9, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—
Dear Sir,—I have used your medicine, the Vegetine, for Rheumatism with great success, and believe it to be the best medicine for that complaint that there is. I also know it is a good blood purifier, and at the present time am using it as the best spring medicine that I know of. I take great pleasure in recommending the Vegetine to my friends.
H. MUND, Charles Street.

Thousands will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily), that Vegetine is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humors, impurities, or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is, as many have called it, "The Great Health Restorer."

Vegetine

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

ASHLEY, ILL., Jan. 20, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir,—I have been using Vegetine for Dyspepsia, and find more relief from it than all the other medicines I ever used. There is nothing like it for Dyspepsia.
MRS. M. E. FOWLKS.

I am personally acquainted with Mrs. Fowlks, and can certify that the above statement is true.

Thousands Speak.—Vegetine is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

HEGE'S IMPROVED CIRCULAR SAW MILL

Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

CIRCULAR SAW MILL.

LEVER FEED CUTTER

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new & dnuntried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any other first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular

Lever Feed Cutter,

Is something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters, at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

THE SALEM PLOW

Will not Choke, Runs light, Easily Regulated.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.

For the South Atlantic States, clearing weather, colder, northwesterly winds, rising barometer, preceded by high variable winds, and rainy weather attending the storm centre.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Business has ceased to exist, owing to the wetness.

——Overcoats made their appearance yesterday.

——There have now been five weeks of continuous court.

——Use Simpson's Dental Fluid, it preserves and beautifies the teeth.

——The exceeding dampness af the Capitol renders the use of fires necessary.

——The clerk of the weather has pooled his issues on the autumnal equinox.

——Mary Morgan, colored, was released from the work house yesterday, on payment of costs.

——Gov. Vance yesterday received the resignation of N. Young, as county commissioner of Rutherford.

——The equinoctial gales are now upon us, and yesterday gave a good exhibition of their powers.

——Letters are held at the post office, unstamped, addressed to James Moore, city, and W. H. Pines, Goldsboro.

——It looks natural to see the grove of the old Lovejoy school once more enlivened by the presence of the boys.

——A rumor went the rounds yesterday that there were six cases of yellow fever at Danville, Va.

——The stable and outhouses north of the jail are to be removed, to make way for the iron fence of the new post-office yard.

——Twelve beautiful young ladies tarried briefly at the Yarborough yesterday, having come to the city as pupils of some of the schools.

——Theo. Joseph has Lynn Haven Bay oysters on the half shell; also has deep water oysters, cocked in chafing dishes.

——The sum of $9,833,33 was drawn from the State Treasury yesterday, by T. H. Briggs, Esq, for the use of the State Penitentiary.

——Farmers report the fodder crop as greatly injured by the weather. But the grass has grown so finely that the hay will compensate for the loss.

——The present grand jury has been in session three weeks. It is said to be the longest session ever held in the State.

——Preparations are being made for the erection of a neat residence at the northwest corner of the Rayner grove, lately sold by the State Commissioners.

——Old Pepper will this evening serve up oysters in his old style, and hereafter will receive oysters by Express every evening. They will come packed in ice.

——A novel sight was witnessed in one of the Magistrates' Courts. So leaky was the roof that the witnesses were compelled to shelter themselves under umbrellas.

——Every man one met on the street yesterday seemed ready with an apology for being in existence. A more woe-begone set of pedestrians, idlers, or business men were never beheld.

——Mr. Jacob S. Allen has contracted to rebuild the lately destroyed Baptist Church at Rolesville. He has nearly finished work on Science Hall, at Wake Forest College.

A Treat in Store.

The comic operetta "Il Madagascarene," is shortly to be produced here by some fine amateur talent, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m.,	74°	2 p. m.,	78°
10 "	78°	6 "	76°

Mayor's Court.

Justice W. D. Haywood presided at this , temple of justice yesterday. Only one case was tried, that of York Lane and Caroline Durham, both colored. These parties have not been conducting themselves as they should. Lane was not at the trial, but Caroline was sent on to Criminal Court in a bond of $50.

Personals.

Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, D. D., of Greensboro, is at the Yarbrough.

Maj. J. W. Wilson, of Morganton, is at the same hotel.

Jno. M. Moring, Esq., of Chatham, was in the city yesterday.

J. T. Peebles, Esq., of Jackson, is in the city.

Did Not Speak.

Hon. Jos. J. Davis went to Auburn yesterday, but did not speak. The reason being the continued downpour of rain, which prevented attendance. He speaks at Panther Branch to-day.

Prevented by the Rain.

The Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, who was expected yesterday, to receive the annual reports of the County Treasurer and Superintendent of the Poor and Work Houses, was prevented from being present by the rain.

Slamming Old Jo.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: Jo Turner is a brindle-tail no longer. He is now a full-fledged Radical candidate. The Radical District Convention held in Raleigh on Tuesday, nominated him as their Congressional banner bearer, and now Jo dances to the music of Ike Young, Dick Badger, Stewart Ellison & Co.

Military Gossip.

A letter from Kinston says there is some talk of raising a Light Horse Company; there are several of the 1st. N. Cavalry Brigade about the place who could respond to boots and saddles.

Sure of Success.

Capt. S. P. Horton, for several years past the efficient agent of the N. C. Railway at Wilson's Mills, has opened a general commission house in this city, for the sale of cotton, etc. Reliability and promptness, combined with excellent business qualifications, will render him one of the most successful merchants here.

Abstract of Taxes.

The following abstrac of listed taxables was yesterday received by the State Auditor:

Lenoir county, by B. L. Taylor, Register of Deeds, reports:

General Taxes,	$2,219.75
Special "	2.270.20
School "	3,491.06
County "	7,770.99

The Habeas Corpus Case.

The case of the State vs. R. C. Smith came up in a writ of habeas corpus, and was continued from Wednesday, at Chambers, before Judge Strong. By consent of the counsel for the State, it was ordered that the defendant be released upon a justified bond of $5,000. Bond was given, and the defendant was released.

Anti-Turner Republicans.

Many of the Republicans here consider the action of the District Executive Committee of their party in endorsing Turner, as being somewhat of a bull-dozing character, and say they don't intend to let their claims for some voice in the selection of a candidate pass unnoticed. So they will hold a meeting at the court house this evening, when they propose to sit down on the committee. Such a condition of affairs is truly delightful.

The Cotton Crop.

The continued rains have had a bad effect upon the cotton crop. In portions of this county and Johnston the bolls are rotting. Farmers appear to be greatly discouraged at the prospect, and fear a short crop. Picking has been delayed by the bad weather, and the cotton has been stained. Taken altogether the outlook is not encouraging, as, this being the equinoctial season, continued bad weather may be apprehended.

The Weldon Fair.

The News acknowledges, with thanks, the receipt of a ticket of invitation to the ninth annual exposition of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, at Weldon, October 28th to Nov. 1st. The officers of the Society are P. E. Smith, Esq., President, and L. M. Long, Secretary. The fairs at this place are always attended by numbers of persons from Raleigh, and are always enjoyable and profitable.

Yellow Fever in Orange.

The Durham Tobacco Plant says, the physicians report a case of yellow fever in the northern portion of Orange, near Cedar Grove. Jasper Haily, a resident of Memphis, left there after yellow jack commenced his ravages and came to Orange county, where he had relatives. After he had been in Orange about a week he was taken sick and the physicians have pronounced it a case of yellow fever. When last heard from he was convalescent and it was not thought there was any danger of it spreading.

W. E. Dupree, Esq.

The advertisement of this live, energetic and progressive young man, appears in this morning's News. Mr. Dupree has opened a grocery and general merchandise establishment in the Adams building, store No. 2, Martin street. He will transact a cotton and commission business besides. He is one of the rising young merchants and has the pluck and energy to attain success. Messrs. H. J. Robards, of Granville, John Redford, of Wake, and C. H. Dupree, of Wake, are connected with him as salesmen, and are young gentlemen of wide acquaintance. Mr. Dupree has the best wishes of the News for the success of his enterprise.

The September Planets.

Jupiter will be the evening star throughout the month. He arose on the first of the month at half-past four in the afternoon, and about the end of the month will rise about half-past two. No casual observer can glance at the southeastern sky without recognizing this beautiful planet the moment his eye is turned towards the heavens. Saturn is rapidly increasing in brilliancy, reaching his culminating point on the 22d inst., when he comes into opposition with the sun, when he will silently steal away. Venus is still the morning star, and rises at half-past 3 o'clock.

Revision of Registration Books

The clerk of the Board of Justices has given notice that registration books will be kept open for revision from the 1st day of October, 1878, until and including the day preceding the day of election. Persons entitled by law to vote, who shall have resided for ninety days in the county, and who shall be on election day actual residents of any precinct or township, will be entitled to register and vote. Those who have arrived at the age of 21 years since Aug. 1st, 1878, will, of course, have to register anew. Persons who registered at the August election and have since changed precinct, or township must, upon presenting themselves for registration, produce a certificate from the registrar who registered them, stating that their names have been erased from his book.

Wake Criminal Court.

Court met at 10 o'clock, yesterday, His Honor, Judge George V. Strong, presiding. The following cases were disposed of:

State vs. David Ferrell; peace warrant; judgment that the defendant give bond in $100 to appear at next Court, and pay costs.

State vs. Wm. Lamb and J. B. Beasley; affray; submission; judgment, $5 fine and costs each.

State vs. Charles Fisher; assault and battery; verdict, guilty; judgment reserved.

State vs. John Glenn; larceny, etc.; verdict, guilty; judgment reserved.

State vs. Wm. Hodge; larceny and receiving; judgment, four months in the county jail.

State vs. Isaac Adams; false pretense; verdict not guilty.

State vs. Isaacs Adams and Ashley Wilder; sci. fa.; judgment according to sci. fa., remitted to $10 and costs.

Court adjourned until to-day at 10 o'clock.

Grocer and Commission Merchant, Raleigh, N. C., sells at wholesale and retail, the best groceries, candies, cakes, tobacco and cigars, &c. Will handle consignments to best advantage. *

Richmond Advertisers.

The News has the pleasure of presenting to its readers the advertisements of four first-class business houses of this time-honored city:

Messrs. Davenport & Morris—Transacting an extensive import trade in salt, sugars, coffees, and heavy groceries. The firm is one of the largest in the country, and is favorably known to merchants through Mr. Ed. Sully, its clever salesman for this State.

Messrs. Geo. W. Anderson & Sons—A firm of high standing, dealing extensively in carpets, oil cloths, &c. Merchants and housekeepers will find it to their advantage to correspond with this house.

A. Oppenhimer, Esq.,—One of the largest clothing establishments in Richmond, manufacturer and jobber of clothing. A thoroughly reliable house, with ample means and facilities to do full justice to their customers.

Wm. Daffron, Esq.—A leading furniture establishment, whose commodious ware rooms are filled with an immense stock of every variety of furniture, comprising over two hundred sets of chamber furniture, with other articles in proportion. In addition to this he has another establishment devoted to the manufacture of mattresses and upholstering.

Kind Colored Folks--Their Dime Party Last Evening.

Despite every inclemency of the weather, the colored folks turned out en masse at the grand dime party given for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers at Metropolitan Hall last evening. For several days the committee of the Amateur Club, some twenty in number, have been raising funds wherewith to make due provision of eatables for the entertainment. The affair was given under the auspices of the Amateur Club. The hall presented a really attractive appearance, with its bright lights and looped up evergreen wreaths. The tables were well filled with tempting viands and delicacies, and were carefully looked after by those in charge.

The Oak City Brass Band rendered some good music, and the Mountain Glee Club delighted the visitors with their vocalization. Members of the various colored military organizations were present in uniform. All seemed to be enjoying themselves to the utmost, and to be quite liberal as to purchases. The capital order and neatness, so observable, contributed much towards the enjoyment of participants, and the members of the club deserve great credit for their good management and taste. Owing to the fact of a large quantity of dainties, yet unconsumed, being on hand, the club has concluded to hold a second Dime Party at the same place, this evening. A general attendance is requested. Colored people should heartily co-operate in this praiseworthy charity. The receipts last evening were about $100.

For the Sufferers.

Citizens of Kinston yesterday sent Gov. Vance $26,18, for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers. The amount was promptly forwarded the Howard Association of Memphis.

The sum of $100 was sent from the express office yesterday, for this noble purpose. Of this amount $20 was contributed by St. Mary's School.

The generous spirit of giving pecuniary assistance is now yielding good effects all over the State. A call is now made for another Dime Party here. Let the ladies give their aid, as before. It will not do to let the good and necessary work pause at all.

The ladies festival at Charlotte, was, like the one here, a grand success. The receipts from the various tables and at the door, aggregated $550. This does not include other funds collected on raffles and from one or two other sources, which doubtless amount to at least $150 more.

The New York Herald says that "the Southern people, true to their traditions, are returning their ablest and most experienced Representatives to the next Congress, and most of the Southern members of that body will enter its halls equipped with those great advantages which experience and a knowledge of men and things and of the ways of legislation confer upon those who possess them."

I find the combination in Prime Silver Ware immovable in prices, still I am watching some parties from whose forced sales I will get a fine stock very low. Spoons and Forks cannot be had below full prices and only our last splendid purchase enables us to sell low. New goods now arriving daily in all lines, at Law's China, Glass and Silver Warehouse, No. 9, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. *

New Store--New Goods.

Having opened a grocery and general merchandise store in the Adams building, No. 2 Martin street, I would announce to my old customers and the public generally, that I shall keep in stock a large and varied selection of dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, &c., &c. Buying at cash prices, as I do, I can at all times compete with the market and afford my customers all the advantages offered to the trade. I shall be glad to give strict personal attention to all business in my line. W. E. Dupree, Raleigh, N. C., Martin street, Adams building. *

The Standard of Excellence.

Bread is the staff of life, and is used in every household. Yet how few have the judgment to make such a selection of flour as will make bread white, pure, tempting. Cheapness in this staple food is nearly always coupled with impurity, and brands without name or reputation are passed off upon the unsuspecting as of superior quality. The idea in purchasing this article is to get it at a place where its quality is guaranteed. This is done, and it may be had in any quantity at the store of W. H. Dodd, corner Wilmington and Martin streets. *

Country and City.

Are alike accommodated at the well conducted and fancy stocked store of J. P. Pritchard, at the corner of Salisbury and Hillsboro streets. The best family groceries are there to be found at low prices. Satisfaction is sure to attend purchases at this fine grocery establishment. *

The Place for Farmers.

This is unquestionably at the Cotton and Commission house of Cooke & Wainwright, who offer to agriculturists great advantages in the way of bargains, and who are at all times prepared to show all possible favors to customers. Persons who have cotton to dispose of will do well to remember this fine house. *

Beauty and Comfort.

These two desirables are both found by purchasers of Levy's Champion Improved Yoke Shirts, whose fit is guaranteed. Entire satisfaction is always given purchasers. The workmanship and finish are both of the finest. The manufactory is home enterprise. *

Families

Will please take notice that my stock of family groceries has been largely replenished and selected with great care for a first class fall city trade. It will afford me great pleasure to give my personal attention to all customers. All goods delivered free of charge anywhere in the city. L. R. Wyatt, Wilmington street, Raleigh, N. C. *

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. Use it and regian vigor! sept 10-d6tw1t

Opinion of Eminent Dr. H. R. Walton, Annapolis, Md.

Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef is a most excellent preparation. It is par excellence. Superior to cod liver oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions.

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier, it is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction. While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood, and probably for other diseases.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON,

Dear Madam, I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine appeared to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me. For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this. rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years, and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,
Fayetteville, N. C.

For my personal reliability, I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. J. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.

The above medicine is for sale by Pescud, Lee & Co., Wm. Simpson, and F. H. Hearit, Druggists Raleigh, N. C. or it may be ordered direct from me. For further information, enclose stamp for Circulars to

JONES' BAKING POWDER

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better pure more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and as credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."

EATON & BURNETT'S BUSINESS COLLEGE, Northeast Corner of Baltimore and Charles Streets, offers unsurpassed facilities for preparing Young Men for business. The principals have had large experience as Educators, and will spare no pains to maintain the high character and standing of this institution as a business-training School. The Penmanship Department is in charge of E. Burnett, who was sole Penman of the Bryant & Stratton College from its foundation in 1864 to May, 1878, and of whom Mr. Sadler, principal, in his Catalogue of 1877-78, says: "Prof. E. Burbett is the best teacher of Penmanship in the country, is absolutely without a peer in the practice of his art, and without a rival in his extraordinary facility in imparting it." He is an accomplished and accurate accountant."

A. H. Eaton is a member of the Baltimore bar, and students here possess superior advantages through Lectures and personal instruction upon the transactions as they arise relating to Commercial Law. For particulars call for Circular or address,
